Welcome to our 2019 Society & Group Packages

To meet the expectations and needs of today's golfers you will notice that we have totally revamped our packages and completely overhauled our society brochure.

We have made our packages and selection process much easier to understand for the organiser, with all options now combined under either a simple Weekday or Weekend pricing structure, a method that's intended to provide a one-stop selection process for all your party's golfing needs, whether you are selecting a mid-week or weekend fixture.

Building on the success and popularity of last year's Pick & Play menu, we are delighted to confirm that we have now extended it to include Weekend options. So, we can now offer a pre-selection menu for every day of the week. This superbly versatile option gives each player the opportunity to select their individual menu option from a whole range of home cooked menu choices before they play, our team of chef's then prepare and cook fresh for them, so meals are ready for when their round is completed.

Our prime asset the golf course, has thankfully survived the extraordinary weather conditions experienced during 2018. We took a massive decision to over seed our fairways and enter in to an extensive greens restoration program that now sees our course in tip top condition. Our greens are reported to be playing superbly and a we are thrilled that a major investment in a new Jacobsen fairway mower is living up to its well-deserved reputation of providing a top quality tournament presentation.
